A Cautionary Tale

Jessi Reaves, Bradley Kronz

APALAZZOGALLERY is proud to present 'A Cautionary Tale', the first two person exhibition in Europe for New York based artists Bradley Kronz & Jessi Reaves.

Both artists wallow in the quaggy swamplands constructed by the human tendency to imbue objects with personal meaning. Their improvised methods present an alternative perspective of objecthood, and forge a language often from found objects learned and spoken one word at a time. Individual and shared memories are key here to pass thru the brittleness of our own cultural history and the precarious artist position.

Bradley Kronz was born in San Diego, CA in 1986 and he studied at the School of the Art Institute of Chicago. He currently lives and works in Brooklyn (New York).

Among other shows: Essex Street, NY, Mathew, Berlin, Lomex, New York.

Jessi Reaves was born in Portland, OR in 1986 and she studied at Rhode Island School of Design in Providence. She currently lives and works in New York.

Among other shows: Bridget Donahue, NY, The Sculpture Center, Long Island City, NY and Swiss Institute, NY. She was recently selected for the Whitney Biennial in 2017.

Opening Thursday 15 December from 6 pm
